ORDERS BY THE CHIEF COMMISSIONER, AJMER MERWARA

NOTIFICATIONS

Ajmer, the 23rd June 1948.

No. G/Munl-10-III.—In accordance with the provision, of sub-section (3) of section 8 of the Ajmer-Merwara Municipalities Regulation 1925 (VI of 1925), the Chief Commissioner is pleased to notify that Mr. S. O. Nath is appointed as a nominated member of the Ajmer Municipal Committee vide Mr. A. B. Rogers resigned.

By order,

A. N. LAL,

Secretary to the Chief Commissioner, Ajmer-Merwara.

Ajmer, the 24th June 1948

No. A/21-11.—In exercise of powers conferred by section 544 of the Code of Criminal Procedure as adapted by the Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Laws) order 1937 read with the Govt. of India Home Department Notification No. F.126/37-Public, dated the 1st April 1937, and in supersession of Notification No. 697-127 dated the 16th May 1918 as amended by notification No. 127-CC, dated the 18th November 1927, the Chief Commissioner, is pleased, with the previous sanction of the Governor General to make the following Rules, relating to the payment of the expenses of complainants and witnesses attending the Criminal Courts of Ajmer Merwara, for the purposes of inquiries, trials, or other proceedings under the said code—

Payment of expenses to witnesses

1. The Courts are authorised to pay at the rates specified below the expenses of complainants and witnesses—

First, in all cases, whether non-bailable or bailable in which the prosecution is instituted or carried on by, or under the orders of, or with the sanction of the Governor General or Provincial Government or of any Judge, Magistrate or other public officer.

Secondly, in all cases entered in Column 5 of Schedule II appended to the code of Criminal Procedure as not bailable, when it shall appear to the presiding officer to be directly in furtherance of the interests of public justice :

Thirdly, in bailable cases in which the presiding officer of the court, if a Magistrate of the 1st Class, or the District Magistrate, on the recommendation of any Magistrate of the 2nd or 3rd Class, considers that in the interest of public justice such payment is required :

Fourthly, in all cases in which the witnesses are compelled to attend by the court under the provisions of Section 540 of the code.

Provided always that no such payment shall be made to any witness on the part of Government when the expenses of the attendance of such witnesses have been deposited in court under section 216, 244 or 257 of the Criminal Procedure code.

2. The rates referred to in the foregoing rules are as follows :—

- (a) for persons of the ordinary labouring class Rs. 2 per diem for men and Rs. 1½ per diem for women.
- (b) for persons of higher rank in life Rs. 3 per diem.
- (c) for persons earning fixed daily or monthly wages, who would lose wages for the period of attendance at court, the amount of the wages actually so lost.
- (d) for persons of superior rank, according to circumstances. The expenses allowed shall not ordinarily exceed Rs. 6 per diem but in exceptional cases the court shall have discretion to fix them at a higher rate. But in such a case the magistrate shall give in writing and under his signatures his reasons for fixing the rate in excess of Rs. 6.
- (e) for expert witnesses including members of medical and legal profession such amount as the Court considers reasonable but not exceeding Rs. 200 in any case.

3. Travelling expenses will be given only when the journey could not, with reasonable case and expedition have been performed on foot, or in the case of persons who on account of age, position and habits of life, can not be expected to perform the journey on foot. In such cases, in addition to expenses, travelling allowance shall be given at the following rates—

- (a) When the journey is by road, the actual expenses incurred upto a maximum limit of eight annas a mile.

(b) Where the journey is wholly or partly by rail—

- (1) for persons of ordinary class, railway fare by the lowest class.
- (2) for persons of superior rank, intermediate or second class railway fare; but the court may at its discretion award first class fare when the persons concerned, would from their social position ordinarily travel by the first class.

4. When owing to distance or for other reasons it appears to a court issuing a summons that the person summoned will be put to considerable expense in attending the court it may at the time of issuing the summons, send the whole or a portion of the travelling and diet expenses allowed by these rules by money order or otherwise to the person summoned.

5. Notwithstanding the above rules Government servants when summoned to give evidence in their public capacity shall receive nothing from the court. In this case they are entitled to travelling allowance under the Fundamental Rules and the court while discharging them shall furnish them with a certificate in the following form :—

“ It is hereby certified that it was considered essential to record the evidence of in the case noted on the margin and that he was in this connection required to attend the court for days from to ”.

Government servants when summoned to give evidence in their private capacity may be paid by the court and may retain any travelling allowance due to persons of corresponding rank under these rules, but they may not draw diet allowance and they shall not be entitled to any travelling allowance under the Fundamental Rules.

Note.—(i) In cases in which Government servants have to give evidence at a Court situated not more than 5 miles from their headquarters actual travelling expenses incurred by them may, when the court considers it necessary, be paid to them.

(ii) A Government servant whose salary does not exceed Rs. 10 per mensem may receive his expense from the Court.

6. Medical Officer (Government of India, Department of Finance & Commerce Resolution No. 3050, dated the 11th August, 1882).—A Medical Officer other than a Civil Surgeon, or Officer in Medical charge of the Civil Station, summoned to give evidence in a criminal court, touching the result of a postmortem or other examination conducted by him, in cases not falling within the ordinary discharge of his duties, shall not receive any remuneration other than the expenses to which he is entitled as a witness under these rules.

7. Medical subordinates in Local Fund or Municipal employ (including Government servants lent to and paid by local bodies) when attending court to give evidence in their public capacity, shall be paid the same rates of travelling allowance as would be admissible to Government servants of similar grades under the Fundamental Rules.

8. The court ordering the payment under these rules of the expenses of a complainant or witness shall decide—

- (a) the class to which he belongs and the rate at which he is to be paid ;
- (b) the number of days necessary for his journey to and from the court.

9. The court shall exercise its discretion in ordering or refusing payment in accordance with the limits laid down, or in ordering payment in excess of those limits, whether an application for payment is made or not.

10. In the courts of Magistrates situated at Headquarters or at places where there is a Nazir or Naib Nazir, the following procedure will be observed in the payment of diet allowance and travelling expenses :—

At the conclusion of an enquiry or trial or of the examination of a witness or at the close of the day, as the court having regard to the circumstances of the case may direct, the departmental clerk will take the orders of the court as to the payment of diet allowance and travelling expenses, the rates at which payments are to be made, and the number of days to be allowed for journeys to and from the court, and will then prepare a statement in the amended form A. The court, after checking the statement there and then in open court cause the Nazir or his staff to pay each complainant or witness the amount shown in the statement as due to him. The presiding officer of the court will then endorse on the statement a certificate that the money has been paid in his presence and make the document over to the Nazir or his staff as a voucher in support of the disbursement. The signature or thumb impression of the payer will be taken in column 10 of the statement ; but no separate receipt will be taken. The statement referred to above shall be forwarded as soon as practicable to the District Magistrate, under whose orders the amount shown therein as due shall be included in the contingent Bill. The District Nazir shall check 5 per cent. of entries in statements and all entries showing payment of money exceeding Rs. 100 to any witness and shall bring to the notice of the District Magistrate any instance of departure from foregoing Rules. The statement referred to above shall be forwarded as soon as practicable to the District Magistrate under whose orders the amount shown therein as due shall be included in the Contingent Bill.

11. The procedure prescribed above will be observed so far as it can be made applicable, in Courts of Sessions and in Courts of Magistrates who are in camp or which are not situated at the Headquarters of the District.

12. A register in the annexed form B will be maintained by the departmental clerk attached to the court in the courts of the Sessions and of all Magistrates :—

13. The reciprocal arrangements, made by the Local Administration with the Governments

APPENDIX I

(Government of India, Home Department, Letter No. 12/9/41-Public, dated the 20th August 1943 and No. 177/45-Public, dated the 19th March, 1946).

Reciprocal arrangements between the Chief Commissioner, Ajmer-Merwara and the Madras United Provinces Government about the payment of expenses of Government Servants summoned by Criminal Courts to give evidence in their official capacity.

(1) In criminal cases to which the Crown is a party a Government Servant giving evidence regarding facts of which he has official knowledge will on production of the certificate of attendance issued by the summoning court, be paid travelling allowance by the Government under whom he is serving.

(2) In criminal cases to which the crown is not a party, a Government Servant giving evidence regarding facts of which he has official knowledge will be paid travelling allowance by the summoning court according to its rules and the charges will be borne by the Chief Commissioner or the Governor of Madras United Provinces according as the Court is situated in a Chief-Commissioner's province or in the province of Madras United Provinces.

(3) When a Government servant serving in a Commercial Department or when any other officer is summoned to give evidence as a technical or expert witness, the pay of the Government Servant concerned for the period of his absence from his Headquarters and travelling allowance and other expenses due to him will first be borne by the Government under whom he is serving and will subsequently be recovered from the Government in whose jurisdiction the Court in which he is summoned to give evidence is situated.
